Prophecy for the Church

Stay in My Presence. Linger there. Saturate yourself in it. Take time to let Me minister to you. Take time to let Me speak to you. I long for us to walk in unbroken communion, where I have your full attention and your heart beats with My heartbeat for a lost and broken world.

Yes, I am always with you, and My Presence is with you and all around you. But your awareness of My Presence is sometimes not as pronounced in your life, because at times your life becomes so busy, frantic, and distracting.

Take time to enjoy My Presence, for in My Presence is fullness of joy. It is where your heart sings, your mind rests, and your troubles seem to disappear, because I am right there communicating My answers to you and giving you the strength, endurance, and grace to get through your troubles to the other side.

Many times, My people bring their petitions, supplications, and requests to Me, but fail to wait quietly, listen carefully, and receive the very answers I want to give them for the difficulties they are facing. Sometimes I offer more than instruction, information, or wisdom. Many times, I desire to strengthen you, pour out My Spirit upon you, and give you joy unspeakable and full of glory, so that you may know My fullness in a deeper way.

Many times, you feel weak and worn. Come to Me, and I will give you rest. Joy will fill your heart, and strength will flow not only into your spiritual being, but into your physical and emotional being as well—that place where your soul is refreshed in Me.

Times of refreshing come from My Presence. I long to pour out My Spirit upon you, but you must learn to fully give Me the time to do so. There is so much I have to give you, but you must take time to receive it. I am an extravagant God. I long to give you even more than you desire to receive.

Do not think you are self-sufficient, or try to be self-reliant, for without Me you can do nothing—but with Me you can do all things. I long to fill you with My power so that you can run through a troop and climb over the walls the enemy would try to place in your way.

Through Me you shall be valiant.

You shall see the breakthroughs come.

You shall know My victory.

You shall know My power.

And out of your innermost being shall flow rivers of living water.

Stay.
