Thought for the Day

Before Pentecost, Jesus lovingly prepared His disciples for life without His visible presence by promising the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit would guide, strengthen, teach, comfort, and empower them to continue the work of Christ. As we gather this Sunday before Pentecost, may our hearts be freshly awakened to our need of the Spirit and to the wonderful promise that God now dwells within His people.

Next Week: Pentecost Sunday!

Pentecost reminds us that God has not called us to live by human strength alone, but by the living presence and power of His Spirit within us. Come expecting a fresh awareness of the Spirit's work in our lives.

Scaffolding Help Needed

after Worship on Pentecost please.
Calling all men to assist with scaffolding to repair the speakers and lights.

Fun Fact:

Followers of Jesus now live in virtually every nation on earth and speak thousands of different languages—yet they are united by one shared message: the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. What began with a small group of disciples in Jerusalem has become the most widespread faith movement in human history.
